PROPERTY TAX RETURNS Property tax returns must be filed with the Charlton County Board of Tax Assessors between January 1 and April 1 of each year. The taxpayer may elect not to file a property tax return if there have been no changes that would affect the value of their property from the previous year. Failure to file a new return when there have been improvements made to the property will subject the taxpayer to a 10% penalty on the value of the property not returned plus interest and possibly penalties from the date the tax would have been due.

HOMESTEAD EXEMPTIONS The deadline for filing for a homestead exemption in Charlton County is March 1. Application for homestead exemption is made with the Board of Tax Assessors in the county. Failure to apply by the deadline will result in loss of the exemption for that year.

This section describes special local homestead exemptions that only apply in this county. Statewide homestead exemptions are also available and may provide more tax relief depending upon the taxpayer's circumstances.

The following local homestead exemptions are offered in this county:

Code	Exemption Type	County General	County Bond	School General	School Bond	State	Age	Other
	School - Age 62	20,000		10,000	10,000		62	Income from all sources <12,000 (1)
	County - Age 62	20,000	20,000				62	(2)

(1) Income from all sources including the income of all members of the family residing in homestead.

(2) This exemption is in addition to other homestead exemptions a taxpayer may qualify for.

FREEPORT EXEMPTIONS Charlton County voters have elected to exempt the following types of commercial and industrial inventory:

- Raw materials and goods in process of manufacture - 100% exemption
- Finished goods produced in Georgia within the last 12 months - no exemption
- Finished goods stored in Georgia within the last 12 months and destined for shipment out-of-state - 100% exemption

The City of Folkston has also elected to exempt 100% of all qualified inventory.

The deadline for filing an application for freeport exemption with the Board of Tax Assessors is April 1 to receive the full exemption. For more information on freeport exemptions click the link below:

AD VALOREM TAX PAYMENTS Taxes are normally due in this county by December 20 of each year but the law allows taxpayers 60 days from the date of mailing before interest may be charged. Ad valorem taxes are collected by the Tax Commissioner. The actual deadlines for the last three years in Charlton County are:

- 2006 Taxes – 12/20/06
- 2005 Taxes – 02/01/06
- 2004 Taxes - 02/01/05
- 2003 Taxes - 03/01/04

After these deadlines interest at the rate of 1% per month is charged. Additionally, a penalty of 10% will apply to all taxes that are not paid within 90 days of the deadline (no penalty if tax is on a homestead and less than $500). For more information on tax payment deadlines click the link below:

<http://www.etax.dor.ga.gov/ptd/adm/taxguide/payment.shtml>

VALUATION APPEALS If the assessors disagree with the taxpayer's returned value, they will change the value and a change of assessment notice will be sent to the taxpayer. If the taxpayer wishes to appeal the change, the appeal must be sent to the Board of Tax Assessors and postmarked no later than 45 days from the date of the change of assessment notice. For more information on the procedure to file an appeal click the link below:

<http://www.etax.dor.ga.gov/ptd/adm/taxguide/appeals.shtml>

AD VALOREM TAX REFUNDS If a taxpayer discovers they have paid taxes that they believe were illegal or erroneous, they may request a refund within 3 years of the date of payment. The claim for refund should be filed in writing with the county governing authority within three years after the date of payment.
